

Formed in October 2023 as a spin-off from the renowned Adelaide-based cover band PUSH, PUSH DUO was created by Ellen Tefanis and Josh Biggs. Featuring an array of acoustic instruments, including bass and guitar, PUSH DUO blends the male and female lead vocals of Josh and Ellen to create a harmonious and engaging sound, complemented by delightful harmonies.

Since the beginning of 2024, PUSH DUO has performed at a variety of venues, including weddings (playing the bride down the aisle), pubs, wineries, family days, Thursday night dinners for football clubs, and more. PUSH DUO's musical canvas is vast, drawing from many genres and styles. Their repertoire reflects a harmonious fusion of Josh and Ellen's diverse musical influences and experiences. Carefully curated, their setlist spans across decades and genres, featuring captivating performances that resonate with a broad audience.

Their song selection showcases their passion for delivering well-known, sing-along hits that appeal to diverse audiences. Notable tracks include classics like Daryl Braithwaite's "Horses," contemporary hits like George Ezra's "Shotgun," Miley Cyrus's "Flowers," Chris Isaak's "Wicked Game," and many more.

Additionally, for special events, PUSH DUO can include drums in their lineup upon request, as seen in the photo section of our press package.

Ellen Tefanis, guitarist and lead singer of PUSH DUO, started her musical career in high school with live performances. She gained recognition by performing with Keith Urban and collaborated with Delta Goodrem during lockdown. Endorsed by Music Man, Orange Amps, and Ernie Ball, Ellen is a key figure in the Adelaide music scene and frequently travels to Nashville for recording and networking.

Josh Biggs, with over thirty years of experience, brings his vocal, guitar, and bass skills to PUSH DUO. A former member of FIGHTERPILOT, BB Steal, and Surviving Sharks, he won Best Music Video at SAMIA in 2004 and toured nationally. Currently serving as the bassist and vocalist for the Adelaide band Xploder.
